

SOUTHERN SPAIN & PORTUGAL WINTER WARMTH

January is the perfect time to seek out somewhere warmer and brighter, where you can relax and unwind after the festive season, and southern Spain and Portugal offer just that. Two full days in Cádiz give plenty of time to soak up the region's vibrant culture, from experiencing the passion of flamenco dancing to tasting delicious local tapas in lively tavernas. You might even choose to join a tour to enchanting Seville, famed for its elegant plazas and orange tree-lined avenues. Matosinhos is your gateway to Porto, with its riverside cafés, tiled streets and historic Port wine cellars, while Gibraltar's Rock and dolphin-watching tours, and Marbella's golden beaches and palm-lined promenades – reachable from Malaga – beckon.
